English for Everyone Junior: 5 Words a Day Apr 22 2020 Learning English Level 1 Dec 19 2019 Learning English Level 1. Vocabulary activities for kids, by Arthwr Bass, is a learner's book to teach English as a second language. This book is based on the idea that the quickest route to teach English, to students from 6 to 8 years old, is building a solid foundation in the basics with entertaining games. The content of this book correspond to a basic level of English; students can understand and solve the exercises very easily or with a little help of a dictionary. Contents include: Greetings and farewells, emotions, classroom objects and commands, colors, fruits and vegetables, numbers, basic shapes and farm animals. To reinforce the teaching of English and let the kids practice, this book is full of fun games such as: crosswords, find the mystery word, puzzles, match the name with the picture, find the correct and incorrect word, complete the words and paint the drawings. Every chapter is highly illustrated to promote the interest of the kids in learning the language. Aprende inglés jugando con Learning English Level 1. Understanding English Grammar Jan 20 2020 This book aims at helping learners of English (particularly those whose first language is Chinese) to improve their understanding of, and their competence in, English grammar. It directly addresses the needs of Chinese learners and takes full account of their first language in helping them understand how English works by systematically requiring them to think about grammar, and to come up with their own hypotheses about how it works on the basis of the given data. The book is designed for students' learning on their own as well as in a classroom. Each chapter is accompanied by a separate 'students' notes', which the students can consult after working through all the data and exercises in each chapter, to check their own answers and to read further explanations on the grammatical points in question. This book therefore appeals to the growing number of students learning through self-access, as well as promotes independent learning among those enrolled in educational institutions. Key features: - Directly addresses the needs of Chinese learners of English - Concise, user-friendly grammar presentations followed by examples of correct use - Innovative exercises offering learners in-depth practice of key grammar points - Detailed students' notes section and a full answer key for easy reference - Suitable for use in class, or for self-study

The book was developed and tested by full-time teachers of English. There are twelve short stories. Each story is designed to engage students in a well-rounded language learning experience. There are vocabulary, comprehension, speaking, and writing exercises following each story. The stories are entertaining and have plot twists and surprise endings. Teachers of English as a Second Language will enjoy using them to engage students on a wide range of topics and interests. A man is testing a hang-glider. He accidentally lands in the lions' enclosure. A lion sees him and walks towards him. The man is terrified. Is he going to die? A young man is celebrating his graduation. He jumps in a swimming pool and disappears. His friends look for him. They can't find him. Where is he? A girl gets a kitten from a strange old woman. The girl brings the kitten home. She doesn't tell her parents anything. The cat gets bigger and bigger. Her brother thinks it's a leopard. Is it? And much more. The stories are short (300 - 400 words). Each story and its exercises can be completed in 60 minutes. This book is for* everybody who wants to improve their English. It's fun to learn English by reading interesting stories. You can also download a free audio version of the book read by a professional actor. See page 76.
